

LIFETIME RESIDENTIAL WARRANTY

This warranty is subject to the procedures, recommendations, limitations, disclaimers, and exclusions mentioned herein and in the general information, installation, and warranty sections of this document. When installed in a residential situation, Elevare flooring is warranted to be free from manufacturing related conditions for the warranty period specified when used under normal conditions and installed in accordance with manufacturer's installation instructions to the original purchaser of the home, as long as they continually own and reside in the home for the period of the warranty. With respect to Environments with rolling traffic (wheelchairs, motorized chairs, casters, etc.) the flooring may perform better installing the product using the glue down method or not using a free-floating floor and instead choosing an alternate product that is recommended for rolling loads. Should you have questions or concerns with these areas please consult your Elevare representative or Technical Services. All installations require estimating additional material, due to trimming and culling of material (overages occur). This overage then becomes what is commonly referred to as "Attic Stock". It is recommended the end user keep attic stock in the event their installation require additional service. Should a manufacturing related condition occur it will be necessary to provide your original receipt of purchase. Elevare will credit the original purchase price of the product (if found valid). If the manufacturing condition develops after the product has been installed, Elevare will credit "reasonable" and pre-approved labor cost (providing the floor was installed by a professional certified flooring installer). This warranty is not transferable from original purchaser. Manufacturer's warranty and liability does not extend beyond the flooring material and is limited to a maximum value of the original purchase price. Warranty is limited to repair or replacement of the planks or tiles at the sole option of the manufacturer. Claim compensation (if approved and/or authorized) is limited to the specific area which is deemed to be valid under the claim. The warranty applies to the original owner/user that its products, when in its original manufactured condition, aside from previously mentioned information and exceptions, will be free from manufacturing related conditions and dimensional inconsistencies during the warranty period when installed and used under normal use in accordance with the terms, installation instructions, limitations, and conditions herein. This warrants to the original user that the finish on the product will not wear through, nor separate from the flooring during the warranty period when installed and used under normal residential use in accordance with the terms, installation instructions, limitations and conditions herein. This warranty is the entire and sole statement of warranty for the product and replaces all previous warranties, written, spoken, implied or otherwise. No implied warranties exist beyond the terms and conditions of this warranty, the manufacturer assumes no legal liability for all actual incidental and/or consequential damages, however, some states within the USA do not permit the exclusion or limitation of incidental and/or consequential damages, as such, this exclusion may not apply to you. This, like all warranties, gives you specific legal rights. In addition, you may also have other rights that vary from state to state or from province to province. Rental units, leased properties, and apartments are considered commercial properties under this warranty. The 10 Year Limited Commercial warranty applies to these types of installations. Note that manufacturer/distributor/retailer reserves the right to visit or have its agent visit the premise where the product claim originates to inspect the product in dispute and to remove samples for verification and technical analysis. Note: Analysis of all sample material submitted should be considered destructive testing rendering the sample material unusable for re-installation (See claim form for proper packaging and shipping of sample material). As noted earlier, attic stock should be retained should there be a need for additional servicing. Failure to provide reasonable access to the installation area or to provide requested information and/or documentation may result in denial of the claim. Failure to adhere to and follow all the instructions for installation, maintenance, incorrect/ insufficient maintenance, or any modification to the product other than as outlined in the manufacturer's installation instructions will render the warranty null and void. NOTE: Rental units, leased properties, and apartments are considered commercial properties under this warranty. The limited residential warranty does not apply to these types of properties and installations. These are covered by the limited commercial & light commercial warranty. 10 YEAR COMMERCIAL & 10 YEAR LIGHT COMMERCIAL WARRANTY. Elevare warrants that the wear layer of the Luxury Vinyl Flooring.
